- Stays current with developments in the field of technology and learning theory.
- Demonstrates high-level professionalism in developing and/or implementing long- and short-range plans in accordance with the philosophy of a learning-centered college.
- Participates in institutional, and program/instruction committees, campus activities, and representation of the college in the community.
- Develops strong partnerships with appropriate community stakeholders in support of department and college improvement.
- Participates in department reviews, conducts research, and surveys, and prepares updates, reports, and plans.

- Continues professional development for the improvement of self and the department to meet the needs of a learning-centered college.
- Maintains current licensure, certification, or other professional credentials required for the position.
- Provides accessibility to students and colleagues as expected in a learning-centered college.
- Accepts teaching assignments scheduled during the day, evening, weekends, or online.
- Participates in student recruitment, retention, advising, and registration activities.
- Performs other duties as assigned by the Dean of Academics.

(These are intended only as illustrations of the various types of work performed. The omission of specific duties does not exclude them from the position if the work is similar, related, or a logical assignment to the position.)

Required Qualifications and Credentials:

- Master's degree or above in the discipline, or related field or a master's degree or above with a minimum of 18 graduate semester hours in the discipline.
- Previous teaching experience at the college or university level.
- Ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing.
- Working knowledge/utilization of word processing, spreadsheet, and presentation software applications.

Preferred Qualifications and Credentials:

- Ph.D. in the discipline or Ph.D. with 18 graduate semester hours in the discipline.
- Minimum of the equivalent of one academic year of full-time teaching experience at the community college or university level.
- Familiarity with a learning management system (LMS) such as Canvas.
- Knowledge and/or experience with learning outcomes assessment.
- Demonstrated innovation within the field of education and/or technology.
- Evidence of effective problem-solving, critical thinking, and decision-making skills.
- Evidence of a career that includes a strong work ethic with a proven track record of project completion, multi-tasking, and the ability to handle high-pressure environments.
- Evidence of a willingness to accept responsibility for professional and personal growth.

Additional Requirements:

In accordance with LCTCS Policy #6:036, a criminal history check will be conducted on all new hires. LCTCS participates in the federal E-Verify system for identification and employment eligibility purposes.
